Encounter on the Party Front

Col. Julia Hamblet (left), commandant of the women marines, talks over their alma mater with Miss Joan Stevens, daughter of Secretary of the Army Stevens, at the recent retirement review and reception in honor of Gen. Omar Bradley and Gen. J. Lawton Collins. Col. Hamblet and Miss Stevens are alumnae of Hartridge school in Plainfield, N. J. Another Stevens is on the list of distinguished former students because, altho Hartridge is a girls' school, there's a kindergarten that accepts boys, Secretary Stevens himself went there in his extreme youth.
